STAUNTON. APPOINTMENT OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

CHURCH ACTIVITY - FATAL ACCIDENT-CLERICAL-PERSONAL- AUGUSTA MARBLE. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] DECEMBER 27, 1878.

The action of the State Board of Educa tion at Richmond in not recognizing the recommendation by members of our County School Board of Mr. M. W. Quarles, principal of the Graded school at Waynesboro', for appointment to the post of county superintendent of schools, has been made the subject of warm censure in communications which have appeared in the Staunton papers. At the request of members of the County Board that body has been called to meet next Tuesday, the idea being to take some action in the form of a protest.

As an evidence of the vim with which the churches of Staunton celebrate Christmas I may state that on Christmas night the Baptist church gave, besides a present to each of its Sunday-school scholars, eighty-six prizes. At the Lutheran church on Christmas-eve the congregation and Sunday school, though the smallest denomination in the town, gave nearly $1,000 in cash to their church.

Our first snow fell last night, and to-day it has been snowing and raining all day, and of course our streets and roads are "slusby" in the extreme; but we are preparing for Christmas, and the toy-shops and fancy-stores are quite busy places. R.

The Potato Crop in Virginia.

To the Editors of the Dispatch: Some weeks since the writer submitted to our sweet-potato growers through the Dispatch a letter from Boston asking where Virginia was in the matter of the demand for potatoes prevailing there this season. On the 28th ultimo he received the followis Virginia?" This memorandum was sent to Colonel John Washington, of Caroline county, who is one of our largest potatogrowers (everybody knows the fame of his orchard-grass seed), and he sends the following reply: "I am informed that in New York city potatoes bring 90 cents, and in the interior $1. They are expected to command $1.50 They are expected to command $1.50 by spring. The question, 'Where is Virginia?' is significant. Why will she not raise potatoes for her own and the southern consumption, to say nothing of what may be demanded of her north in this line? I have raised 300 bushels to the acre, and have always been able to reach a price better than is brought by northern potatoes. I have urged your Richmond merchants to handle potatoes, and written articles repeated by the Ryantz and Ryantz a edly in the Planter and Farmer beseeching our farmers to raise them for market. We must produce everything on the farm that can be sold at a profit. A party from Baltimore has just purchased several thousand bushels of potatoes in Caroline and Spotsylvania counties to ship north. Richmond should leave out no product in which there is money and trade;

la crop of prominence in Virginia. Delay in its becoming so is simple loss. Our business-men pay no attention to it, our newspapers rarely change the quotations of price, and never give us the price in the northern markets. The interest of the farmer, indeed, in this product, is absolute y dependent on his own resources. I have een compelled to subscribe to a New York paper for the sake of getting prompt and full information about this crop. I have not sold the bulk of my crop this year for ess than seventy-five cents a bushel. This is certainly largely better than corn at present prices, considering the yield in bushels of each.

The Dispatch reaches so many of our folks in the country that I could not forbear presenting the foregoing to them, and trust it will not fail to induce an improvement it Very truly, this behalf.

Our Weather Prophet Comes to the Front Again.

BELL'S VALLEY, ROCKBRIDGE CO., VA., ? December 16, 1878.

Editors Dispatch: If there be anything n prophecy or signs according to the sev enth year, we are to have some very deep snows and very cold weather in one of three following months-January, February, or March. The Post's financial article says: "At the Stock Exchange here we have the dulest of markets. Government bonds are steady to strong. Raifroad Investments very strong, while speculative shares are irregular, but generally higher than at close yesare irregular, but generally higher than at close yesterday, the features of the market being the coal shares, which are made interesting by reason of to-day's meeting of the managers of coal companies. Gold continues to rule at par, and at leading banks no distinction is made between it and legal-tender and national-bank notes. The Gold Room still goes through the forms of buving, selling, and 'ending it, is a commodity, but commissions on sales are almost nominal, $10 having been paid on $100,000. Gold loans have been made flat (nothing to rither borrower or lender), and one per cent. for use."
